Cyndi has nearly 15 years of experience in IP prosecution and portfolio management, having worked in both in-house and at law firms in an outside counsel capacity gives her a unique purview. She is highly knowledgeable in domestic and foreign patent and trademark preparation, filing, prosecution and maintenance, and is very well-versed in U.S. and International PCT patent laws and rules.

Outside of work, Cyndi enjoys spending time with her dogs and family cooking and barbequing, attending local events and festivals, and perusing small bookstores and plant shops. Cyndi is also an enthusiastic supporter and ally of the LGBTQIA+ community.
