

Alexis Juergens

Attorney at Law | Associate

Office: Salt Lake City

Office: 801.297.1850

ajuergens@mabr.com

Alexis assists clients with complex and IP litigation needs including patent, trademark, and copyright infringements along with trade secret misappropriation cases. She has also represented clients before the International Trade Commission to both enforce and defend their intellectual property before the Commission. Ms. Juergens is an effective veteran of aggressive intellectual property litigation and related discovery disputes. Prior to joining Maschoff Brennan, Alexis served as a judicial intern in the District of Utah.

During her undergraduate studies, Alexis was a Division I swimmer, winning two Western Athletic Conferences and named All American National Strength & Conditioning Association Athlete of the Year.

Outside of the office, Alexis is interested fitness, focusing on Olympic lifting, health, and nutrition.

Education

- J.D., High Honors, S.J. Quinney College of Law, University of Utah
 - Executive Managing Editor, Utah Law Review
 - Leary Scholar
 - S.J. Quinney Biolaw Fellow
 - Intellectual Property Moot Court
 - Best Oralist from University of Utah
 - Cali Award Recipient (Highest Grade in the Course)

- Intellectual Property Seminar
- Trademark Law
- Judicial Process
- Outstanding Achievement Award (Most Outstanding Performance in the Course)
 - Copyright Law
- Co-Director, Student Animal Legal Defense Fund
- B.S., Magna Cum Laude, Northern Arizona University, Criminology and Criminal Justice
 - Minors in Biology and English

Practice Focus

- Complex and IP Litigation
- Actions before the International Trade Commission
- Patent Infringement
- Trademark Infringement
- Trade Dress Infringement
- Copyright Infringement
- Misappropriation of Trade Secrets
- Contract Related Issues

Professional Admissions & Associations

- Utah State Bar
- United States District Court for the District of Utah